"I LOVE YOU, ALICE B. TOKLAS"

Mild-mannered Peter Sellers jilts his middle-class life-style, along with his betrothed, and falls headfirst into a hippie existence—complete with doe-eyed beauties and bearded gurus. The reason: a batch of marijuana brownies mixed according to the Alice B. Toklas Cookbook. Jo Van Fleet and Leigh Taylor-Young co-star. It's classic Sellers—lovable and wacky. No rating, brief nudity. (1:34) Sept 3, 5, 7, 11, 13, 16

After Pearl Harbor, the Japanese try to finish off the Pacific fleet. But Uncle Sam counters with a flotilla of stars led by Charlton Heston and Henry Fonda who gamble on a counterattack at Midway. War-time violence. (PG-2:12) Sept 2

The Most Devastating Detective Story Of This Century.

REDFORD/HOFFMAN "ALL THE PRESIDENT'S MEN"

Skeptical, hungry and insatiably curious, two young reporters follow a thread of truth to the Oval Office—and a President resigns. This fascinating film gives flesh and blood to the headlines of the Watergate era, a time when few believed that reporters Woodward and Bernstein were on the right trail. Robert Redford and Dustin Hoffman play the dynamic duo perfectly—with a dogged humanity and cool professionalism that make this film a suspenseful and beautifully detailed front-page whodunit. Jason Robards (who earned one of the 4 Oscars the film received), Hal Holbrook, Jane Alexander and Martin Balsam also star. Mature theme. (PG-2:15) September 11,15,19,24,27

Secret agent Bogarde must block an exiled Third World leader's return to power—and he'll do anything to succeed. LATE SHOWINGS

Good news for all you night owls—this season we've increased the number of late night showings. Many viewers asked that we make this later time slot a part of our regular service. We hope you enjoy the addition.

INSIDE THE NFL

Here's a comprehensive, one-hour look at the past week's NFL action. The series starts Thursday, September 22, and runs through the Superbowl. The Thursday shows repeat on Fridays and Saturdays to make sure you don't miss out on the action—or the Football Sweepstakes. Every week during the regular season there'll be a new contest—and maybe you can win a trip to the Superbowl!

HOW HBO WORKS

You see major motion pictures, sports, and specials—unedited and without commercial interruption. Scheduled for convenience New films and specials premiere on the weekends and run four to six times over the next four weeks. They appear on different days at different times to make sure you have ample chance to see the shows you wish—when you want.

Continued opening run When a show starts near the end of a month, it continues its opening run into the early part of the next month. One to three showings Besides the new shows, each month we encore a few of the earlier programs that our research shows our viewers especially enjoyed. These are shown only one to three times during a month.

JERRY LEWIS • SRO

This month Jerry Lewis headlines on Standing Room Only. Along with his great concert, you'll see Jerry talking about his early show business career. When asked if he remembered his first dressing room, he answered, "Yes, a nail on a backstage wall!" Lewis' exclusive performance for HBO premieres Sept. 18th.

WEEKENDS

This fall, HBO weekends are more fun than ever. Now you see new shows every night—Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Also, most of the new shows now begin at 8 p.m. As you look through this month's guide you'll see we've got some exciting September weekends lined up for you. It's just the start of a great fall season.
